giving voice and support to civil society

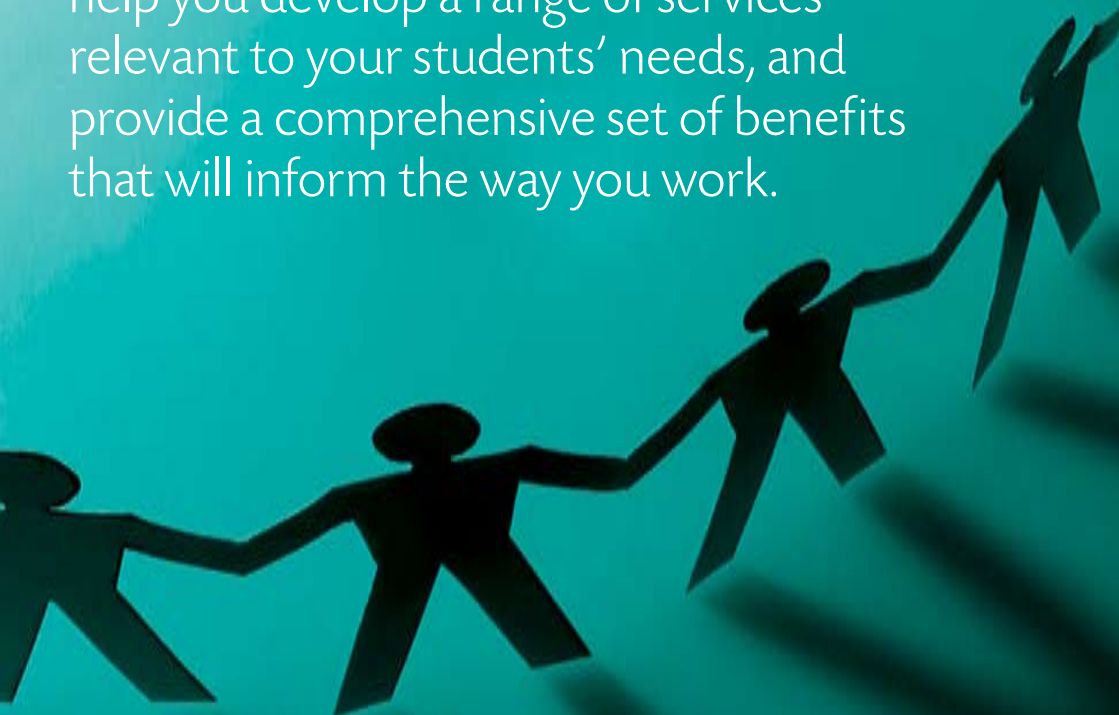

UNIVERSITY MEMBERSHIP

Strengthening partnerships with civil society

www.ncvo-vol.org/university

NCVO is the largest umbrella body for the voluntary and community sector in England. As a member, we can enhance your understanding of civil society, which will help you develop a range of services relevant to your students' needs, and provide a comprehensive set of benefits that will inform the way you work.

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Monthly email briefing

A concise, reliable guide to what's happening in the voluntary sector with updates on breaking news, analysis of major trends and details on government policy initiatives.

Engage Magazine – free subscription

The only magazine published by the voluntary sector for the voluntary sector, Engage is ideally placed to give you expert analysis on the key issues and personalities in the voluntary sector. As a member, you will receive a complimentary subscription. Normal price £65.

Voluntary Agencies Directory – free copy

Your complete guide to the voluntary sector. An essential reference work for researchers, policy-makers and individuals involved in the voluntary sector, the directory provides contact information over 3,000 national charities and other organisations connected to the voluntary sector. Normal price £60.

UK Civil Society Almanac – free copy

NCVO's Almanac offers a definitive analysis to the changing face of the voluntary sector and broader civil society, including higher education. It looks at emerging trends, and forecasts future developments. Normal price £125.

Publications discounts

NCVO produces expert guidance and support to all its members through a series of highly regarded publications. All members receive a 30% discount on NCVO publications. If you purchase 10 or more copies of an individual publication this increases to 40%.

NCVO Research Team – direct link

You will have a direct relationship with NCVO's Research team together with access to their PowerPoint slides to use in your teaching.

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

RAISING PROFILE

Conferences and events

NCVO events cover every aspect of the voluntary sector, from governance to funding. Members receive a 30% discount, and priority booking period, on all NCVO events including our flagship Annual Conference, which, in previous years, has been addressed by the Prime Minister, the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Home Secretary. It's also an ideal opportunity to network with a wide range of people working in and with the voluntary sector.

NCVO networks

NCVO runs many network groups covering specialist areas such as information and communications technology, diversity, public service delivery and human resources. They provide an ideal opportunity to share best practice and network with other practitioners in the voluntary sector. Join any NCVO network free of charge.

High profile receptions

There are comprehensive networking opportunities available to you as a affiliate member of NCVO including our high profile receptions at the House of Commons.

Exhibition Opportunities

NCVO's Annual Conference is attended by over 600 voluntary sector leaders. Receive a 10% discount on exhibiting.

Accessing new audiences

NCVO's website (www.ncvo-vol.org.uk) has an average of 50,000 unique visitors every month. With links to several thousand charities, the website is an extremely popular source of information for people carrying out research on the voluntary sector. A link to your website provides an effective way of raising your profile with a broad range of civil society organisations. As a affiliate member, you will also have full access to the members' only area of NCVO's website.

Recognition in NCVO's Annual Report

NCVO's Annual Report is a high profile campaigning and advocacy document distributed to all members. We will acknowledge your membership of NCVO in our annual report sent to over 5,500 senior decision making individuals in the voluntary sector.

Discount on advertising in Engage magazine

With a readership of over 20,000 senior management staff in the voluntary sector, discounted advertising in Engage magazine enables you to reach this audience in the most cost-effective way possible.
